1. Introductions of meeting attendants

- Attendees quickly explain who they are and the groups they represent.
- Gene introduces NYCTWC collectively.
 - NYC Transparency Working Group (nycTWG) is an organized constituency for technologically driven government transparency. Our groups recognize that information technology has transformed society and, inevitably, changes our relationship to government. We are here to help build a positive and constructive relationship to advance open data initiatives in New York City.

2. DOITT's Transparency initiatives. (Carol Post)

City transparency and open government initiatives, potential for cooperation.

3. nycTWG's introduction. (Gene Russianoff)

- We want to be a visible constituency for NYC Open Government engagement.
 - OpenGov Camp, a summit to discuss these issues, Sunday, 5 June < <http://OpenGovNYC.org> >. (Noel)
- Develop an open data legislation working group to ensure that legislation that is passed is efficient and produces the best possible legislation.
 - Public Data Directory (Citizens Union)
 - Open Data Legislation (Common Cause)
- Support for NYC's Open311 initiatives. (Civic Commons)

4. Cooperation and next steps
