

NYC Transparency Working Group

The NYC Transparency Working Group (NYCTWG) encourages New York City government to use information technology to become more open, transparent and accountable to the public.

Meeting Agenda

July 11, 2011

10am to 11:30am

Location: Reinvent Albany / Open Plans 148 Lafayette St. 12th floor conference room.
(One block North of Canal on Howard Street.)

Host Contact: Krista Brenner/ Reinvent Albany 917-579-0481

Chair of NYC TWG: Gene Russianoff, NYPIRG

1. Introductions (Gene Russianoff and John Kaehny)
2. New York City Digital Road Map (Rachel Sterne, Mayor's Office.) 10 minutes
3. Discussion and Q&A with Rachel Sterne (45 minutes)
4. Updates and Next Steps for TWG (Gene Russianoff)
 - TWG Follow-up on Digital Road Map
 - Intro 29 NYC open data: should we do a call if when we see new bill draft?
 - Open DOE: New disclosure law in city budget, Hackathon, Apps
 - Other NYC transparency.
5. Other items
6. Next meeting