

NYC Transparency Working Group

Citizens Union
Common Cause/NY
League of Women Voters/NYC
NY Public Interest Group
Open Plans

NY Civil Liberties Union
Open NY Forum
Reinvent Albany
Women's City Club
Civic Commons

The NYC Transparency Working Group (NYCTWG) encourages New York City government to use information technology to become more open, transparent and accountable to the public.

Meeting Agenda

Thursday, May 17, 2012

10:30am to 12:00pm

Location: Reinvent Albany, 148 Lafayette Street, 12th floor.
(Follow signs to conf. room.)

Host Contact: Dominic Mauro, Reinvent Albany
607-296-0401 or
dominic@reinventalbany.org

NYC TWG Co-Chair: Gene Russianoff, NYPIRG,
Co-Chair: John Kaehny, Reinvent Albany

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |            |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 1. nycTWG and the Open Data Policy Hack(Includes future open data implementation.)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 20 minutes |
| 2. A Public Face for Transparency Working Group <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Is there consensus on creating a web site?</li><li>• Who maintains? Guidelines for posting?</li><li>• Group names on site? TWG vs ad hoc advocacy.</li><li>• What constitutes TWG position?</li><li>• Should there be such a position?</li></ul> | 30 minutes |
| 3. Frequency of TWG Meetings; Content of Meetings                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 10 minutes |
| 4. Upcoming Hearing in Albany: Information Revolution                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | 5 minutes  |
| 5. Upcoming (5/24) Launch of AG's Project Sunlight Web Site                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 10 minutes |
| 6. Closing Remarks and Next Time                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 10 minutes |